KARATE1 PREMIER LEAGUE SALZBURG

Karate1 series of 2011 is arriving at its Grand final in Salzburg

On November 12th & 13th, 2011, the first season of Karate1 Premier League will present its final event in the beautiful city of Salzburg/Austria. More than 600 competitors from 40 nations are expected to participate and to fight for the last available ranking points as in most categories the Karate1 Grand Winner is not yet determined.

Again the current entries already feature a big number of worlds and continental champions which promises gripping fights and Karate at world-class levels.

Also the grade of professionalism concerning the organisation of the tournament itself is still increasing in the Karate1 series, as WKF approved tournament standards are applied and additional features are available, such as live and non-stop web-broadcasting as well as the online registration system and the online-availability of draws, results lists and the Karate1 ranking list.

As the Karate1 Premier League season of 2011 is now reaching its final event in Salzburg the Karate1 Premier League season of 2012 is already set up, getting even bigger and better with then seven events around the world, featuring Paris, Milan, Jakarta, Istanbul, Frankfurt, Zurich and Salzburg.
